

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

John J. Bassett,

Complainant,

v.

George W. Woods, Jr.,

Defendant.

Case 03-08-013
(Filed August 19, 2003)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
REQUESTING RESPONSE BY COMPLAINANT

This complaint against the owner of a mobilehome park alleges overcharging for propane and electricity. Defendant denies the allegations and claims that the dispute is currently being litigated in Superior Court.

This ruling requests that Complainant respond within 30 days to the following questions:

1. Upon what basis does Complainant contend that this Commission, rather than the civil courts, has jurisdiction to enforce Civ. Code § 798.44 as to the price of liquefied petroleum gas for use in a mobilehome park?
2. Does Defendant's proffer of a $94.09 refund to Complainant resolve the allegation of overcharging of electricity service?
3. Please identify and state the status of any and all complaints now pending in civil court or elsewhere between Complainant and Defendant.

Complainant is asked to respond to this ruling in writing within 30 days of the date of this ruling, with copies of the response sent directly to Defendant and to the undersigned Administrative Law Judge.

Dated October 14, 2003, at San Francisco, California.
